

The Early Years: The Precious Years Poster Series

A five-set poster series that commemorates The Early Years: The Precious Years. With poster themes Imagine, Include, Love, Protect & Read, this series written by Mary Gordon inspires readers to make children’s issues a priority for the society and celebrates the pluralism we enjoy in Canada.

Ideal to display in childcare centres, community centres, sites of human development or parenting courses, schools, government offices, the home, offices of agencies or groups that are dedicated to children’s issues.

Each poster is 12 inches x 18 inches, full colour on glossy paper. Special bulk pricing for orders of 100 sets or more.

All proceeds from the sale of Parenting and Family Literacy materials support the work of Roots of Empathy, a national charity dedicated to building caring, peaceful and civil societies through the development of empathy in children and adults.
